Sneak Peek: Training Provider Search

The screenshot shows the Training Provider Registry search interface. A green arrow points to the search bar. The search bar contains the following fields:

- Training type: Class A Theory (Online), Class A Theory...
- Location: Boston
- My Location
- Provider name: Training School

The search bar has a magnifying glass icon on the right. Below the search bar, the main content area features a large blue banner with the text "WELCOME TO THE TRAINING PROVIDER REGISTRY". The banner includes a description of the registry's purpose and a sign-up button for email updates. To the right of the banner, there is a box titled "Training Providers: Register with FMCSA" with a "Learn More" button. At the bottom of the page, there are two links: "What Is Entry-Level Driver Training?" and "Who needs to take entry-level driver training?".

RESOURCES FOR STATES AND FMCSA DIVISIONS

The resources below have been developed to inform State Driver Licensing Agencies (SDLAs) and other key stakeholders about the Entry-Level Driver Training (ELDT) regulations and the Training Provider Registry.

Note that many of these materials would also be helpful for FMCSA Division personnel.

General Information

Review the State ELDT requirements. Download the SDLA Factsheet

Responding to Stakeholder Questions

FROM TRAINING PROVIDERS

Do I need to register with FMCSA?

- Any entity that provides entry-level driver training must register in the Training Provider Registry. This may include individuals, public agencies, and municipalities.
- Entry level driver training includes training for individuals seeking to:
 - Obtain a Class A or Class B CDL for the first time
 - Upgrade an existing Class B to a Class A CDL; or
 - Obtain a passenger (P), school bus (S), or hazardous materials (H) endorsement for the first time
- For more details, visit <https://tpr.fmcsa.dot.gov/provider>

How can I submit training certification records?

- Provider and training locations must first be registered and approved
- Then, starting February 7, log in to the Training Provider Portal and click Manage Records to manually enter driver training information
- To log in, or start registration, visit <https://tpr.fmcsa.dot.gov/provider>

Responding to Stakeholder Questions

FROM CDL APPLICANTS

Do I need to complete entry-level driver training to take my skills or knowledge test?

- Consult the ELDT Applicability Flow Chart (coming soon) to determine if an individual is subject to the ELDT regulations.

My information is not in the Registry, but should be. What do I do?

- SDLAs must electronically verify training completion using data from the Training Provider Registry; SDLAs cannot accept any paper certificates, etc.
- Contact your training provider to ensure they have submitted certification correctly
- Provider is required to submit training certification by midnight of the second business day after the driver has completed training

Registry Launch Notices

- Email to SDLAs with talking points

- ELDT compliance / Registry goes live
- Media release
- Email to TPR email subscribers
- Email to registered training providers

State Report-Out

- 1 Have you tested your IT connection to the TPR?
- 2 Are your new procedures documented?
 - Scheduling tests
 - Querying/verifying data from Training Provider Registry
- 3 Have you trained staff yet?
 - Internal staff and third-party schedulers
 - How is training going?
- 4 Are there are outstanding barriers to implementation?
- 5 Anything FMCSA can do to help?

Thank You!
